

FORBIDDEN CITY DINNER

Bale Sutra – Kang Xi Temple 1706

The Forbidden City Dinner was inspired by the imperial way of dining in the Hall of Supreme Harmony at the Forbidden City.

For hundreds of years, life in the Palace of Forbidden City of Beijing was dominated by the large number of staff. The emperors during the Qing dynasty were very proud of the parties they held, especially the parties that took place in the Hall of Supreme Harmony, the room that was used to enthrone Emperor Pu Yi in 1908.

At the end of the Ming Dynasty there were about 70,000 eunuch staff employed by the emperor, some serving inside the Imperial Palace. The dinner parties in this Hall of the Supreme Harmony were famous for their excellent service and their entertainment.

In Tugu Bali, this piece of history is brought back to life at the 312-year-old Kang Xi period temple of Bale Sutra. Presenting fine Chinese royal dishes on antique silver trays, guests are entertained by a dining procession of men in colorful Oriental costumes and masks, playing merry instruments and chanting comical poems.

Rp. 800.000++/person Kindly book one day ahead

FORBIDDEN CITY DINNER

At the Bale Sutra – Kang Xi Temple 1706

Guo Tieh Tugu

fried wonton dumplings with pork, chinese mushrooms, ginger and garlic filling

Sweet Corn Soup

with crab meat and onion greens

Stir Fried Eggplants and Tofu

with garlic and sweet spicy bean paste

Breaded Deep Fried Baby Lobster

with baby kalia and creamy lime coriander sauce

Steamed Garupa

marinated in rice wine, ginger, carrot and onions with soy sesame sauce

OR

Fragrant Tender Duck

five spice marinated steamed and fried duck with mandarin pancakes

Yangzhou Fried Rice

with shrimps, ginger, peas, eggs, rice wine soy sauce and coriander

Deep Fried Vanilla Ice Cream

with coconut

VEGETARIAN FORBIDDEN CITY DINNER

At the Bale Sutra – Kang Xi Temple 1706

Guo Tieh Tugu

fried wonton dumplings with spinach, chine mushrooms, ginger and garlic filling

Sweet Corn Soup

Corn & onion greens

Stir Fried Eggplants and Tofu

with garlic and sweet spicy bean paste

Breaded Deep Fried Baby Lobster

with baby kalian and creamy lime coriander sauce

Steamed Eggplant

marinated in rice wine, ginger, carrot and onions with soy sesame sauce

Yangzhou Fried Rice

with ginger, peas, tofu, rice wine soy sauce and coriander

Deep Fried Vanilla Ice Cream

with coconut