

PALATIAL DINING

A private palatial dining in Gedong Gandrung Terrace, where the architecture and interior was inspired by the masterpieces of famous architect and renowned painter of Bali and Lombok: I Gusti Gedong (1850-1894) and I Gusti Nyoman Lempad (1862-1978). Gedong in old Indonesian language means “hall” whereas Gandrung means “strong, passionate romantic love; an uncontainable infatuation
